

A closer look at the

Bovine Tuberculosis Eradication Strategy for Northern Ireland

A presentation and discussion forum with members of the independent
TB Strategic Partnership Group

Monday 27th July 2017

7.30pm

Glenavon House Hotel, Cookstown

New thoughts on tackling TB in NI

An overview of the proposed TBSPG strategy

The drivers and science behind the proposals

The new partnerships required to deliver the strategy

A Q&A session with panel members:

Sean Hogan (Chairman)

Dr. George McIlroy

Dr. Cecil McMurray CBE

John Thompson

Please register to secure your place by emailing info@vetni.co.uk
or telephoning VetNI on 028 25898543

NIVA members, free of charge.

Non-members -£30

With thanks for generous sponsorship from

When implemented, the strategy outlined by TBSPG in the Integrated Eradication programme will obviously impact on vets across a range of disciplines, in practice, in government for DAERA and AFBI, as well as agriculture as whole in NI.

Attendance at this meeting should help all sectors of the vet profession to better understand the strategy and the thinking behind it, allowing for an informed response to the consultation on the report when it becomes "live".