

Taking the Trauma Out of Wounds

Wednesday 21st November 2018

Following member request this is a new look Northern Ireland regional meeting with the emphasis on hands on practical with the lower limb. Using a case scenario approach with cadaver material delegates will be encouraged to perfect their hands-on approach to wounds management using examination, synoviocentesis, radiography and ultrasonography. Surgical debridement will also be covered.

WHERE

Auburn Equine Clinic,
8 Scroggy Lane,
Glenavy,
Crumlin,
BT29 4LD

COURSE FEES

BEVA Members £50
AVSPNI Members £50
BEVA Student Members £25
Non-Members £100

KEY LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Develop an understanding of ultrasound and radiography
- Refresh your knowledge on joint blocks and synoviocentesis
- Learn practical skills in wound debridement and imaging of the lower limb
- Be able to confidently identify problems with radiography and ultrasound
- Interpret radiographs of the lower limb.

COURSE ORANISER

Alfonso Martin BVSc GP Cert EP MRCVS, Co Antrim
Assisted by Sarah Gasper BVM&s Cert EP MRCVS, BEVA Office

COURSE SPEAKERS

Juan Francisco Perez Olmos MVB, Dip ECVS, Ireland
TBC
TBC

SUITABLE FOR RCVS MODULES

B EP3, CE-5, CE-15

FULL PROGRAMME

DAY ONE

12:30	Registration and Lunch
13:15	Practical: How to get the best from your machine.	IMV
14:00	Practical: Case Scenarios: Approach to lower limb wounds	Juan Perez
14:45	Practical: Case Scenarios: Imaging wounds	TBC
17:15	End of the meeting	