Glanbia Cheese Ltd Factory Tours from 2pm

Glanbia Cheese are the leading mozzarella manufacturer in Europe, part of a global network consisting of 11 manufacturing plants around the world, which support and supply over 80 countries.

During the factory tour you will see how this factory turns nearly over 1 million litres of milk into Mozzarella Cheese each day. You will see everything from the milk arriving to the finished product and have the opportunity to ask question along the way.

Then on to Edenmore Golf Club...

4.50pm - A brief overview of Red Tractor

Speaker —Kate Cross

(Red Tractor Technical Manager—Beef, Lamb and Dairy)

Kate is responsible for the day to day running of the beef & lamb and dairy schemes, working alongside the Technical Advisory Committee.

She will talk about where Red tractor fits in the wider world and the recent changes in particular those relating to critical antibiotic usage / sensitivity testing, recording, collating and to highlight the potential that some of our farmers may be subject to unannounced visits.

5.20pm - A business and market overview and an insight into anti-biotics/milksure

Speaker —Paul Vernon (Chief Executive—Glanbia Cheese)

Paul has worked in the dairy industry for the past 32 years, commencing working with a Co-Operative based in Northern Ireland. For the past 24 years he has been the Chief Executive of Glanbia Cheese, (a European joint venture between Glanbia Plc. and Leprino Foods) which is head quartered in Northwich, Cheshire.

The company has grown turnover to circa £275m and has become the leading manufacturer of mozzarella cheese for the Pizza Industry in Europe, accounting for over 30+% of all UK cheese exports and the largest cheese manufacturer in the UK. It processes circa two million litres of milk per day, supplied by its contracted farmers in both Wales and Northern Ireland. It employs 380 staff and is the major local employer in the rural areas where its manufacturing facilities are located. In addition to his role in Glanbia Cheese, Paul has recently taken on the role of Chairman of Dairy UK.
