NORTH OF IRELAND VETERINARY ASSOCIATION

VISIT TO THE INTERNATIONAL SHEEP DOG SOCIETY'S 2023 WORLD SHEEPDOG TRIALS

with Guest Speaker Dr Viola Hebler
Vet, Sheepdog trainer & Competitor

A unique day on the veterinary social calendar and a Northern Ireland 1st!

Wed 13th Sept 2023 - Gill Hall Estate, Dromore

Expected to attract 50,000 spectators from across the world, Gill Hall Estate, will host the 2023 World Sheepdog Trials. This is the first time the global event has been held in Northern Ireland with some 240 competitors from over 30 countries.

Join fellow NIVA members, the veterinary community and family to meet, have some fun, and gain an insight into what it takes to be the very best in the sheep dog world.

The event would be open to NIVA members, and other members of the veterinary community including veterinary nurses and family members.

NIVA will host a day out which would comprise of grandstand seats to watch the trials throughout the day. Enjoy a private lunch in a marquee where NIVA guests will have the opportunity to hear from Dr Viola Hebler on a veterinary surgeon's approach to sheepdog training. Viola works as a veterinary surgeon yet finds time to train her dogs to compete at continental and world-class competition.
