

Thursday 14th March 9.30–5.30pm

SMALL ANIMAL RADIOLOGY CPD

'IT'S NOT ALL BLACK AND WHITE'

This one day course will provide theoretical and practical tools to help build your confidence examining and interpreting radiographic studies covering all organ systems. Learn how to recognise normal and abnormal findings as well as the use of contrast for GIT and urinary investigations.

Interactive practical film reading sessions will be included.

Course Agenda

9.30am – Registration with Tea/Coffee/snacks

- Radiographic anatomy, approaching thorax, abdomen and musculoskeletal radiography and reporting your findings
- Case discussion: Recognising Pathology within the Thorax
- Case discussion: Recognising Pathology within the Abdomen
- Use of contrast studies in veterinary medicine
- Case discussion: Recognising Pathology associated with the MSK system
- Debulking myths and Q+A session – The day should finish around 5.30pm

Speaker – Mark Coia BVMS DipECVDI MRCVS
RCVS and EBVS European Specialist in Diagnostic Imaging

Armagh City Hotel, 2 Friary Road, Armagh,
Northern Ireland, BT60 4FR

- Cost – £220 + VAT/€260 + VAT – includes refreshments, 2 course lunch and course notes
- 6 hours CPD, VCI Credits pending approval
- This course is open to all vets and nurses

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER NOW

For more information contact fiona.mcfarland@imv-imaging.com
0044 7760 908463

www.imv-imaging.com